

Please keep our freedom alive and fair competition in the radio market, I used to listen to the radio sometimes, now that I have XM I listen all the time. I am completely dissatisfied with the lack of choice in Minneapolis and rural Minnesota. IF FM can not compete with XM, that is their problem. The consumer should not suffer because of their unwillingness to try to compete.
Thanks John Chapin